

Main Programme Data Releases

Data are released into the Genomics England Research Environment quarterly and each release is identified by an incremental increase in release version. Each release contains all the data contained in the previous releases, along with all new data generated during the quarter. The following pages contain the descriptions of each data release for the Main Programme.